seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"Jesus summoned the twelve and began to send them out two by two"

The scriptures this weekend capture the missionary dimension that comes with being a disciple. The Lord calls us to proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom. Being a disciple is not just a matter of our personal faith life. We are reminded this weekend of the social and communal aspect of being a believer.

When I was in the seminary we were challenged to "walk the talk". In the world of religion, we can easily get very theoretical about how we should be. The Gospel reminds us of the responsibility we need to be "sent". Through our actions we witness our faith and call others to faith.

St. Francis of Assisi was quoted as saying, "preach the Gospel, use words if necessary". How do I connect my faith with the choices I make, the priorities I establish, the behavior I demonstrate?

The Lord sent them out two by two, and within a remarkably short period of time the numbers of believers flourished. They supported each other and the power of healing and new life expanded beyond their wildest expectations.

One of the wonderful aspects of the reopening process is to see much of parish life beginning to return. Eventually we will be restoring our social outreach which is vital to our parish mission. You can already see opportunities listed in the bulletin.

Sr. Paulanne's Needy Family Fund provides much needed assistance to families at risk. We recently made a significant investment in Catholic Charities' New Hope Apartments. This program is a resource we can direct our clients to that provides a safe place to live along with a coordinated effort to bring needed social services like therapy, job training, childcare. All of this results in a significant number of families achieving self sufficiency within two years. This is the kind of example, for me, that brings the vision of the Gospel to a very practical application.

This weekend, at the 9:00 am Mass, I will be installing our Parish Pastoral Council. The Council really helps me in defining and supporting our parish mission. A parish of our size has any number of needs, goals and aspirations. The PPC is a critical forum for our sense of mission to become real and visible. Tom O'Brien is our parish council president and I look forward to a great year ahead. The reopening process and Renew My Church are just a couple of the major topics the Council will be addressing.

I am very grateful to Girl Scout Third Grade Troop 45962 for their generous donation of $250 to the parish. This donation was the result of a lot of hard work, and I really appreciate this gift!

Can't wait to launch this year's Totus Tuus program. Margaret Waldron has convened a great team to make this year's program wonderful. There is information in the Bulletin on the specifics. Our young people have really enjoyed Totus Tuus in the past. We were not able to offer it last year because of COVID.

May your week be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

Did you know about...

The School Sisters of St. Francis?

"The holy man venerated this symbol with great affection, often spoke of it highly, and signed it with his own hand at the end of the letters which he sent, as if his whole desire were to mark with the Tau the foreheads of men and women who have been truly converted to Jesus Christ... signing them with the cross of penance and clothing them with his habit, which is in the form of a cross," wrote Saint Bonaventure about the significance of the Tau Cross to his predecessor, Saint Francis of Assisi. For generations of school children and parishioners at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, the Tau Cross has been the symbol of the tireless commitment of the School Sisters of St. Francis.

Ten years after the parish was founded, Fr. Martin Schmidt opened the school in 1929. Just three years after that, the School Sisters of St. Francis arrived from Milwaukee. The Sisters follow a charism given defined by Saint Francis himself in 1221, as a Third Order. This means they are a religious congregation of women, but they are not cloistered; rather they work in the larger community. In 1873, three Franciscan sisters who were ministering to an orphanage in the town of Schwarzach, Württemberg – then part of the German Empire – were given permission to travel to America where they would minister to the rapidly growing Catholic population. Mother Alexia, Mother Alfons, and Sister Clara arrived in New Cassel, Wisconsin, which was populated by German-speaking immigrants, in 1874. Their mission was to teach in Catholic schools and work in hospitals that were being built all over the Midwest. They established the School Sisters of St. Francis.

By 1887, the School Sisters of St. Francis were serving students and families in five states. Though Mother Alexia returned to Württemberg in 1895 to continue the Sisters' educational work in Europe, Mother Alfons initiated a new focus for the Sisters' teaching in America – art and music. The School Sisters of St. Francis have been known for over a century for their influence in Catholic fine and performing arts, beginning with the St. Joseph Convent Conservatory of Music in Milwaukee. As they moved south, the Sisters opened Alvernia High School in Chicago in 1925, Madonna High School in Aurora in 1925, and they came to Our Lady of Perpetual Help in 1932.

Exterior and Interior photos of the St. Joseph Chapel at the St. Joseph Convent in Milwaukee.

"The Tau was for Francis and his companions a symbol of their total commitment to Christ in poverty and penance, and for whom they carried the cross in their bodies for salvation of the Church," wrote Franciscan friar Thomas of Celano in 1252. At the same time as the School Sisters of St. Francis were teaching in Glenview, they were establishing schools in China, India, and Honduras. Today, 1,100 Sisters serve in ten countries, teaching in schools, working in hospitals, and caring for the poor. In America, the School Sisters of St. Francis are responsible for having founded Alverno College, Sacred Heart School of Nursing, and St. Mary's Hill Hospital in Milwaukee; Waupun Memorial Hospital; St. Joseph Catholic Academy in Kenosha; and Archbishop Ryan High School in Omaha.

To anyone who has known the School Sisters of St. Francis here at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, a favorite saying of Mother Alexia will sound very familiar: "Impossible is a word I do not know."

Did you know about... THE TAU CROSS?

The last letter of the Hebrew alphabet is ת and it makes the sound "tee." The Greek letter Tau also makes the sound "tee" and is written τ. In the Book of Ezekiel, God instructs him to mark all the people of Jerusalem who are good and wish to help reform and remake the city, with the "tee" letter ת.

Pope Innocent III, who gave Saint Francis of Assisi approval for his religious community in the year 1210, preached about rebuilding the Church and marking those willing to join in the effort with the Tau, like the Hebrew "tee" letter in Ezekiel, but using the Greek letter because of its resemblance to the Cross of Christ. Thus, the Tau Cross has served as a symbol of Franciscan communities, including the School Sisters of St. Francis, for centuries.

TOTUS TUUS 2021 MISSIONARIES

Casey Clark

Hello! My name is Casey Clark and I am a sophomore at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. I am from Park Ridge, IL, I graduated from Maine South High School, and my home parish is Mary, Seat of Wisdom. I am so pumped to be on Totus Tuus this summer! I have had quite a transformation in my faith journey and I couldn't be more grateful for what the Lord has done for me in my life. I am extremely extroverted and I love getting to know people and forming deep meaningful friendships. I love playing basketball, reading, praying, playing the piano, spending time outside and just vibing in general. I cannot wait for Totus Tuus. It's going to be an incredible experience. GET HYPE!

Ronabel Castillo

Hello! My name is Ronabel Castillo. I am from Rogers Park and I will be a senior at Loyola University of Chicago. I am majoring in global and international studies. This will be my first summer as a Totus Tuus teacher and I am very excited to take on this journey. I hope that we will grow in our faith as we learn together this summer.

Katie Collin

Hi, my name is Katie Collin. I am from Gurnee, IL. I will be a senior theology and catechetics major at Franciscan University of Steubenville next year. Two things I am very passionate about are the pro-life movement and Theology of the Body. In my free time I enjoy running (even though I am slow and don't go very far) and baking. I am Catholic because I get to encounter Christ in such an incredibly intimate way physically in the Eucharist and through a relationship in prayer.

Alex Thiel

Hey guys, my name is Alex Thiel and I'm a college seminarian for the archdiocese! I just finished my freshman year at St. John Vianney College Seminary on the campus of the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, MN. I grew up in Gurnee (close enough to Six Flags that I could walk there!) and my home parish is St. Paul the Apostle. I went to Carmel Catholic High School, where I played volleyball and was on drumline and math team. I also became involved in my youth group, where I met other people my age who were into their faith. I'm super pumped to spend the summer with you guys, to be a joyful witness, and to maybe even beat you in a game of spikeball :)

Brown Bag Meals for the Homeless

Hungry, homeless people come to the rectory doors and visit the parish food pantries of our four sharing parishes daily in search of food. Our Sharing Parishes are often able to respond with brown lunch bags filled with non-perishable food. Sr. Paulanne also regularly distributes these bags to local needy. These easy-to-assemble bags are donated by OLPH individuals, families, and groups.

Consider making up a few or get a group together and make up even more. No quantity is too big or too small.

These bags filled with non-perishables are easy to assemble and should contain:

- Pre-packaged tuna salad or chicken salad with crackers
- Trail mix
- Peanut butter or cheese and crackers
- 100% juice in box or can
- Dried fruit
- Fruit cup or applesauce
- Plastic spoon and napkin

Optional:

Sharing Resource Center Reopening

Discussions are taking place as to when and how we will be reopening our Sharing Resource Center (formerly called the Sharing Room).

We are busy investigating the needs of the organizations we serve and assessing our own volunteer capacity in considering changes we might be making.

At this point, we anticipate opening in the fall for food only, with clothing and housewares being selectively accepted some months after.

Watch the Bulletin for further details.

Current Need for Gift Cards

Fr. Tom Boharic, pastor of sharing parish, Mother of the Americas, formerly called Our Lady of Tepeyac, is working to serve families in the Little Village community as they face the loss of teens through gun violence.

He is hoping OLPH can provide donated gift cards to stores, such as Walmart, Jewel, Walgreens, Target and McDonald's, for him to distribute to families in times of such tragedy. Families in his community are barely making ends meet and the unexpected expenses related to a funeral can deprive the family of funds to live from day to day.

We will be collecting gift cards throughout the month of July. Please deliver your gift cards to 819 Chatham, Glenview. Please include the value of the cards.

Clothing and Housewares Donations

Glenview Community Church Resale Shop, New to You

While the Sharing Room remains closed, consider donating your new or very gently used, in trend, clean items to the Glenview Community Church Resale Shop, New to You, located at 1000 Elm St.

They will be accepting donations on Mondays from 10:00 to noon from July 12 through August 16, and then again upon reopening from August 25 on, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays between 9 and 1 and on Thursdays from 9 – 5.

Please mark your donations OLPH, so that Sr. Paulanne will receive 50% of proceeds for her work with the needy. Wear a mask and observe social distancing during donation drop off or shopping.

under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
