Thoughts on the

SUNDAY SCRIPTURES

In today's second reading Saint Paul's final appeal is a call for unity. God created that unity. Good stewards who share Christ's life in the Eucharist belong to each other, just as God in the three persons of Father, Son and Holy Spirit enjoy unity.

We are an intimate part of God's divine bond, God's "family." Saint Paul maintains that we ought to act that way. In the Church there is a bond of family, yet plenty of room for variety.

Christian stewards use their uniquely varied gifts to live a Trinitarian faith, in unity, promoting Christ's peace and justice. How do we promote unity in our parish?

Dear Parishioners,
Schools Out!

No matter what age you are, the end of the school year invites us all to let out a deep breath and embrace the promise of summer. It is hard to top the feeling of relief and anticipation that summer can hold; whether we are in school or not.

Summer is a great time to recharge our batteries, to get away from it all for a while, to spend time with family and friends. I hope you have some plans to celebrate summer whether it is a vacation or getting lost in a novel on a hammock in the backyard!

There are several studies that suggest that many people have a hard time relaxing or stepping away from the unrelenting stress of modern day living. The pressures of work, schedules and life challenges can overtake us. Summer entices us to "kick back", waste some time doing nothing, fire up the grill or watch the Cubs win another one. Some people have a hard time with other people relaxing or getting away. Let go and enjoy the wonderful sunlight and the beauty that surrounds us. There are few places that have the parks that surround us. Just a few miles east of us is one of the most beautiful lakeshores anywhere. Playing catch with your grandchildren or going for a long walk can be the best medicine in the world.

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity. This is a theological doctrine central to our belief. As we acknowledge the relationship of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we hold up in prayer our relationship to the mystery of God in our life. It is also an opportunity to reflect on the central relationships in our life. Maybe this summer we could all identify some friendships that we need to be more present to. Weeks slide into months and sometimes we drift away from some of the friendships that are so important to us.

Many Chicagoans joke, there are two seasons: winter and construction. The construction season has arrived. As you know, Glenview Road will be a mess for the next several weekends. We will do everything we can to assist your coming and going. Let us pray for the grace of patience.

Later in the summer we will be replacing the front steps of the Church and the plaza, which will be another challenge. There will be major work on the second floor of the parish ministry center this summer which will limit the use of Hickey Hall during the day.

I welcome Jim Harding from Mercy Home for Boys and Girls who will be speaking at the masses this weekend.

I am grateful for the efforts that were made to make our observance of Pentecost so beautiful. The Church was simply glorious; decked out in red. At the 9:30 Mass upstairs, Mara Holland Lindsay and Dave Ludden gave powerful witness talks on the call to ministry in their lives. Copies of their reflections are included in this bulletin, pages 8-9.

This week we launched a new effort to continue the transforming experience of the Christ Renews His Parish program that touches so many lives in our Parish. Tom Majorca is heading up the CRHP Continuation Committee that has great plans.

Congratulations to Isabella Lombardo who was the valedictorian of the OLPH class of 2017. She gave a tremendous talk.

Well I must go, it's time to flip the burgers!

Downtown Glenview Road Work Begins

Beginning in mid-June, work will start on the streetscape along Glenview Road in the downtown area, which includes resurfacing the roadway between Harlem Ave. and Waukegan Rd. As the downtown Glenview streetscape project begins, a detour will be put in place for three weeks while a new water main is installed between Waukegan Rd. and Church St. During this time, the road will be fully closed from Waukegan Rd. west to the West Fork of the North Branch of the Chicago River. Regional traffic passing through downtown will be detoured to Dewes St. between Waukegan Rd. and Harlem Ave.

Local access, however, will be provided at all times and all businesses will be open during construction. Here is what is being done:

- The roadway will be resurfaced and about a dozen new public parking stalls will be added.
- The water main under Glenview Rd. will be replaced from Church St. to Waukegan Rd., and storm sewer inlets will be replaced and relocated.
- Parkway trees and landscaping beds will be enhanced, and street furniture added.
- Pedestrian signals will be upgraded.
- Sidewalks will be replaced, some sections with stamped, colored concrete.

In the short term, road construction projects can be an inconvenience. Ultimately, the work improves the road for everyone. Coming and going from campus, we will experience the short-term inconvenience; however, ultimately, we will enjoy the improvements. Our staff will be in frequent contact with the project managers and provide direction to members and visitors as it relates to weekend Masses, other liturgies, parish events or meetings. To that end, the key take-aways from a recent meeting include:

- Full closure of Glenview Rd., from Waukegan Rd. west to the West Fork of the North Branch of the Chicago River, is planned for June 12-30
- To enter the OL parking lot, head east on Glenview Rd. If coming from the East, use the Dewes St. detour and turn on Church St. or Pine St. to Glenview Rd.
- Local access will be provided at all times.
- In the event of temporary closures during a work day, flaggers will be present to direct traffic.
- Temporary lane closures will occur on weekdays only, as much as possible.

While the project is expected to continue through October, work requiring lane closures and involving sidewalks and aprons on the north side of Glenview Rd., is being concentrated in late June, throughout July and is expected to be completed by August 11.

You may visit, or subscribe to, the project blog for updates, glenviewstreetscape.blogspot.com/.

We will communicate relevant updates on the OL Parish website, on the home page (olphglenview.org/).

Thank you for your patience, cooperation and attention to safety during this downtown improvement project.

End of Year School Supply Drive

Women's Club Guild 34 is coordinating a school supply drive June 3-18

The school year is coming to an end, which brings with it unused or gently used school supplies usually brought home in backpacks near the last day of school. Help us put these supplies, or new supplies, in the hands of children that need them most, students at Our Lady of Tepeyac School, St. Phillip Neri Grade School, and St. Sabina School.

Please bring school supplies to Masses the weekends of June 10-11 & 17-18. Collection boxes are labeled and placed at the south entrance and the Parish Center porch.

Supplies needed include: crayons, pens, pencils, markers, erasers, notebooks, folders, loose-leaf, construction paper, glue, tape, child-safe scissors, and backpacks are needed.

Our Lady of Tepeyac also would gratefully welcome gift cards to Target, Walmart or Staples. Teachers and administrators use gift cards to shop for specific needs. Thank you for making a difference!

seek, share, rejoice - youth and family

Youth Mass

It is always most important for the whole family to come to Mass together. But as boys and girls grow older, some of them are inclined to break away from doing things with their parents. Often they don't like going to Mass with their parents. We hope to cope with this situation by inviting them to a youth Mass in the Youth Office (Monticello Bldg.) each Sunday evening, except the first Sunday of the month when the Mass is in the Church. We also try to prepare them for college when they will no longer be with their parents and siblings.

Worshiping with their peers is most important and it is always uplifting to be at Mass with a group of teenagers. Boys and girls from 8th grade and up, are always welcome.

Kairos

We recently finished Kairos 44, and are already preparing for Kairos 45, which takes place November 16-19. It is booked out completely except for two places for senior girls and three places for junior boys. Kairos 46 will take place April 26-29. Application forms are available in the Rectory office.

Parent Effectiveness Training (PET)

The present group of students is now on session six, of eight sessions. On June 7 and 14, we will be discussing family conflict, and learning skills for handling conflict. The scholars tell us that what Jesus did can be reduced to preaching a third way, between authoritarianism and permissiveness. How many of our conflicts are settled in one of these two ways! In our course, we learn skills for using the third way. On the final day of the course, June 21, we learn skills for handling value conflicts, including smoking, drugs, alcohol, pornography, fashion, language, going to church, etc. Above all, we see the ways, which are counterproductive, and hopefully learn skills to inspire our children away from what is destructive.

OLPH Book Club - The Powers That Be by Walter Wink

Book Club is meeting June 12 at 7:00 p.m. in the Youth Office. (Monticello Bldg.) Over the last eight weeks, we've been reading "The Powers that Be" by Walter Wink.

Walter Wink is a renowned theologian and biblical scholar. He helps us reformulate our ancient religious concepts- such as God and Satan, angels, and demons, principalities and powers- considering what we now know. Wink's theology is shaped as much by his study of the Bible as by his involvement in the civil rights movement and the fight against apartheid in South Africa.

The following quotation (p. 121) is very relevant to our situation in the church today:

"Nor should nonviolence be misconstrued as a way of avoiding conflict. The "peace" that the gospel brings is never the absence of conflict, but an ineffable divine reassurance within the heart of conflict: a peace that surpasses understanding."

Christians have all too often called for "nonviolence" when they mean tranquility. In fact, nonviolence seeks out conflict, elicits conflict, even initiates conflict, to bring it out in the open and lance its poisonous sores. Nonviolence is not idealistic or sentimental about evil: it does not coddle or cajole aggressors but moves against perceived injustice proactively, and with the same alacrity as the most hawkish militarist.

The task in the decades ahead will require moving from occasional nonviolent actions to a sustained movement. Our goal must be the training of millions of nonviolent activists who are ready, at a moment's notice, to swing into action on behalf of the humanizing purposes of God.

All are welcome to join the group, even if you have not read the book.

seek, share, rejoice - celebration of ministry work

In the gospel reading today, Jesus gives a radical invitation to his disciples when He says, "As the Father has sent me so I send you." This radical invitation is extended to each of us here today on Pentecost Sunday!

Ministry work here at OLPH has touched me in countless ways. Recently, Clare Martin a dear friend, who I met through the Women's Club ministry, shared a speech given by Fr. Gregory Boyle, at Notre Dame's graduation. In his speech, Fr. Boyle gives a powerful invitation, a call-to-action, much like the one we hear in John's Gospel today. Fr. Boyle says:

"You go from here to create a community of kinship such that God, in fact might recognize it. You imagine with God, a circle of compassion and then you imagine nobody standing outside that circle. You go from here to dismantle the barriers that exclude. And there's only one way to do that: and that is to go where the joy is, which is at the margins, for if you stand at the margins, that is the only way they will get erased."

(Rev. Gregory Boyle SJ, Notre Dame graduation May 2017)

During the past year, I've had the profound privilege of serving on the Parish Pastoral Council. This has enabled me to bare humble witness to the community of kinship and circle of compassion that is revealed through the ministry work of the incredible parishioners here at OLPH. The people sitting in our midst who have said YES to Jesus' radical invitation to continue His mission, those who have committed their faith-filled hearts to "dismantling barriers that exclude" and creating "a community of kinship such that God in fact might recognize it."

Our community of kinship is created when people respond to Betty Collins' and Tom Hart's request for furniture to create a home for a refugee family. And through the enumerable other ways the Sharing Ministry stands with those on the margins.

Our circle of compassion is created by Jen Farber and the participants in the Devotions Ministry each Friday during Eucharistic Adoration and the manner in which that circle grows when the ministry participants warmly, lovingly, invite others to participate.

Our community of kinship is enhanced by the efforts of the Engagement Committee and the Welcoming Team lead by Mary Ann Sullivan and Karen Navarre as they seek to continually dismantle barriers that exclude by inviting all members of our parish to Seek, Share and Rejoice in the Lord.

Our circle of compassion is made wider through the healing presence and spirit of accompaniment created by Rick Nash and the many Ministers of Care who distribute the Holy Eucharist to the sick and homebound in our community. The Ministers of Care ensure that nobody stands outside our circle of compassion.

Our community of kinship grows deeper when Kathy Nitschke trains new Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist as she explains the sacred process, with tears of joy in her eyes, saying, "YOU are the Body of Christ, giving the Body of Christ to the Body of Christ."

And our circle of compassion grows infinitely through the tireless efforts of the Parish Transformation Ministry team who are creating "a new Pentecost" here at OLPH, by standing at the margins and finding ways to engage people into participation... to ensure ALL parishioners, especially those on the margins, feel the embrace of the outstretched arms of Christ's love.

These are just six of the more than 65 ministries we have here at OLPH! Although I feel strongly connected to my own ministry work in our parish, it is baring witness to the ministry work of others that has moved and humbled me.

We are ALL called to do ministry work, to say YES to Jesus' radical invitation, even though, at times, it may feel hard or scary or intimidating to say YES. But the good news is that Jesus doesn't leave us to do this alone. He gives us the great gift of the Holy Spirit to guide, inspire, invite and accompany us. It is my hope that on this Pentecost Sunday, the Birthday of our Church, we celebrate the joy of our many amazing ministries here at OLPH and "we go from here to create a community of kinship " and a "circle of compassion" where no one is left standing outside the margins.

Mara Holland Lindsay

seek, share, rejoice -celebration of ministry work

When Fr. Jerry asked if I would speak this Pentecost Sunday about our ministries here at Our Lady, and specifically why ministry work is important to me, I thought back to why I joined my first ministry, and then reflected on why, over the years, I continue to do ministry work here at Our Lady. When I reflected on those two decisions, it became clear that the reason I first joined a ministry and the reason I continue to do ministry work are really two different reasons.

The reasons for joining my first ministry, The Men's Club, were quite simple, and looking back, quite self-serving (not that there is anything wrong with that). After our family moved here in 2008, I wanted to meet other men from our parish in hopes to shrink, what could seem initially to a newcomer, as a large and overwhelming parish. That, along with the allure of free beer, seemed like a good reason to dip my toe into an OLPH ministry. That was my reason, and we all probably have different reasons, different stories, for why and how we came to join our first ministry.

As I reflected on what has sustained me over the past nine years to continue to do ministry work at OL, I think my reason is pretty much the same as all those who are a part of a ministry here. That reason for me, and I think for others, is rooted in the understanding of the second reading we heard today, chapter 12 of Paul's letter to the Corinthians.

In the second reading, Paul tells us that we all are given gifts, and that these gifts come in many different forms. This fact did not seem like a revolutionary idea to me. I think we would all agree we each have unique gifts. But it is the next line that says: "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit" (1Cor 12:7) ...

those words "for some benefit!"

The fact that our unique gifts are to be used to benefit others and not just ourselves was profound. This for me was a novel idea, and clearly illustrated to me what ministry is all about...using my unique gifts "for some benefit".

And with this new understanding my eyes were opened and I could now clearly see how every ministry leader and every parishioner involved in ministry here at OL was using their unique gifts "for some benefit".

For the benefit:

of the sick, the elderly, the homebound and the dying,
of those who lost a loved one and grieve,
of children and adults with developmental disabilities,
of those who are in need of prayers,
of those new to our faith,
of those new to our parish,
of the newly baptized and married,
of all who worship here,
of those looking to grow in their faith, spirituality, and relationship with Christ,
of those looking for work or new employment,
of our children as they are taught our faith and brought closer to Jesus,
of those who suffer from Domestic Violence,
of those in Haiti,
of those in our sharing parishes,
of those in need in our own community,
of all who suffer injustice.

...and the list goes on...60 plus ministries here at OLPH that are using their unique gifts "for some benefit".

This is the reason why I continue to do ministry work here at our parish; in hope that the mere gifts I have been given can add to this list and benefit another.

Seeing the difference this understanding of our gifts has made in our parish and outside our parish has been very inspiring. The transformative power if we went through each day thinking "how can I use my unique gifts for the benefit of others" would be the impetus in bringing our parish to a whole new level of service and engagement. It is a dream I know we can accomplish here at this great parish... Our Lady of PERPETUAL HELP! As St. Paul reminds us in the second reading...For this is who we are called to be!

Flag Day, Wednesday, June 14, 2017

The American Flag has kept alive the fires of patriotism, for over two hundred years.

Father John J. Dussman Council #3731 and the Bishop Raymond P. Hillinger Assembly #1595, with the cooperation of American Legion Post #166 and the Glenview Navy League, with the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Girl Scouts, will be honoring worn and damaged flags at 6:00pm, on Wednesday, June 14, 2017. The public is encouraged to join us as we honor these flags. They have represented all the good things of our country. They are a tribute to all those who have given their lives in defense of what the flag stands for. They have flown in honor of the sick and disabled veterans who are among us today. The location for this activity is the Jackman Park Gazebo (across the street from the Glenview train station) Between Lehigh Ave. and Washington St., Glenview, Illinois. These flags will be retired with the dignity and respect that are due them. Following the Flag Retirement program, the public is invited to stay for the kick-off of the Annual Glenview Park District's Wednesday Music Festival.

The event will be shown on Glenview Television.

We invite all to an American Flag retirement and disposal ceremony.

For those who wish to turn in worn or torn American Flags for this event; We have made special arrangements with the American Legion to collect the old and worn out flags. They will have available replacement flag kits which includes a 3' by 5' flag, a flag holder, and a pole.

If you are unable to join us on June 14th, you may turn in your worn or torn flag at the American Legion booth on Saturday, June 24, 2017 during the "Glenview Summer Festival".
