TO EVOLVE IS TO CHANGE, BUT MY COMMITMENT TO LOVE AND NONVIOLENCE REMAINS

Are you with me?

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish  1775 Grove St. Glenview IL 60025 Parish Office 847 729 1525 olphglenview
Dear Parishioners,

“Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.”

In the first few weeks after Pentecost, we have several special feasts that invite us to reflect more deeply on some of our cornerstone beliefs as Catholics. Last week we reflected on the Trinity and this week we celebrate, the Feast of Corpus Christi, The Body and Blood of Christ.

The passage I quoted is from Paul’s Letter to the Corinthians which will be proclaimed this weekend. We are the Body of Christ and we must always work for unity.

When St. John Paul II came to the United States in 1979, he delivered a powerful homily on the National Mall. He based it on our national motto, “E Pluribus Unum”, “out of many, one”. Seeking unity in the midst of diversity is quite a challenge.

Whether we are speaking of our nation, our Church, or our parish, there are many forces that seek to undermine our sense of unity or oneness.

The Eucharist seeks to bridge our differences and heal our divisions. In the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup, we are called to stand together as the daughters and sons of our heavenly Father.

I appeal to anyone who feels separated from the table of the Lord to see this Feast as an invitation to begin the journey of healing. Perhaps you need to go to confession to set things right, perhaps you need to begin the annulment process, maybe you need to explore your feelings that have resulted in being alienated or hurt by the Church. Please don’t hesitate to contact me or one of the priests to get together. Misunderstandings, being treated poorly, feeling let down, can lead to a painful sense of not belonging. We all belong!

On this Feast, I thank -- from the bottom of my heart -- our deacons, Jim Revord and Dave Kalina, who, in a special way, minister to the table of the Lord. I thank our Eucharistic ministers who so reverently serve all of us when we gather for liturgy.

I thank profoundly our ministers of care who faithfully bring the Eucharist to the home bound, the hospitalized and those residents of nursing homes. If you know of someone who is not able to come to Mass, please call the office so we can schedule a visit with one of our care ministers.

Just a reminder, we have gluten-free hosts available at all our liturgies.

I want to congratulate Steve Swanson who is retiring as the Director of the Grove after 38 years of awesome service to our community. His love for creation and his commitment to educating us all on our environment, will leave a lasting mark. He and Chuck Balling were so good to me when I first came to Glenview, introducing me to the beautiful parks and recreation facilities this community has to offer.

I am also deeply grateful to Judi Haugh who has been an outstanding assistant principal here at OLPH School. Her family is moving and we will miss her terribly. She has been such a blessing.

I know this is far off but just to get you thinking about the possibility; we will be having a parish pilgrimage June 23rd to July 3rd 2020, to see the Passion Play in Oberammergau. The Passion Play is only performed once every ten years in this beautiful Bavarian town. We will also be visiting the Adriatic coast, the Alps and Venice. Space will be limited. There are brochures available in the parish office.

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Jerry Boland
OLPH Parking Lot Open During Construction

Although work is well underway on downtown improvement projects, local traffic may still access the OLPH parking lot from Glenview Road. Using the Dewes St. detour, visitors may turn north on Church St. or Pine St. to reach Glenview Road, and turn east toward the OL campus and parking lot.

We will continue to provide updates in the bulletin, This Week at OLPH e-newsletter and on the OLPH website. Additionally, you may visit, or subscribe to, the project blog, glenviewstreetscape.blogspot.com, for more details. Thank you for your patience, cooperation and attention to safety during these projects.

Work anticipated through June 16

• Set-up detour route utilizing Waukegan Rd., Dewes St., and Harlem Ave.
• Set-up roadway closure of Glenview Rd. from east of the bridge to Waukegan Rd.
• Install construction fencing within the roadway around staging area from Shoppers Row / Oil Lamp Theater to Waukegan Rd. Sidewalk will remain open to pedestrians.
• Begin water main construction.
• Begin storm sewer construction.
• Begin concrete sidewalk removal on west end of project near railroad tracks.

OLPH Sharing in Action

A group of OLPH volunteers recently worked to feed the needy at an outdoor St. James Mobile Pantry event on June 10. Over 300 people were served.
seek, share, rejoice - you make a difference...

Sharing Ministry: combat summer hunger

Summer Hunger
Needy children look forward to the breakfast and lunch schools provide. Summer - a joy to kids in our community - is a time for deepened hunger for kids living on the fringes of our society. Please be mindful of hungry families and donate to our on-going food drive so that the pantries we serve can be ready for this increased need.

God bless you for your consideration of those less fortunate!

Too busy to shop?
We’ll do the shopping for you! Mail a donation to:
OLPH Needy Family Fund
c/o Lou Marohn
2132 Fir Street, Glenview, IL 60025
Food will be purchased in case lots to stretch and maximize your donation.

Urgent Need for a Household Necessity
Toilet paper should not be a luxury, but it is for many needy people. Please consider toilet paper and other hygiene products when shopping for Sharing.

Feed the Homeless: Catholic Charities, Des Plaines
We will be feeding the homeless who visit the Catholic Charities soup kitchen in Des Plaines on Thursday, June 22.
Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net, to participate or to donate to offset the $350 cost for this meal. It takes both donors and volunteers to make these visits happen.

Feed the Homeless at Marquard Center
Help feed the homeless at Marquard Center on Sunday, July 30. We welcome donations of fresh fruit, cookies and candy, which can be delivered to the Parish Center (former convent) porch that Saturday. We welcome volunteers who would like to help in preparing the meal on Sunday morning, here at OLPH, and still others who would like to go down and serve later in the day. We are also in need of donations to offset the cost of the meal.
Contact Terri Guercio, 857-729-5916 or terri.guercio@ubs.com.

TheCity – An Important Update

When TheCity was introduced, it was our hope it would enhance the sense of community we experience at OLPH by creating more opportunities for one-to-one interactions, providing an online forum for ministries to share ideas, events, needs, and service opportunities while enriching discipleship through shared prayer, reflections, and witnesses.

Regretfully, TheCity is being discontinued by its developer; therefore, as of June 30, we will end our relationship with TheCity and take a breath, so to speak. It’s an opportunity to evaluate our communications efforts, existing social platforms and goals related to Engagement and Communio.

For members with live profiles and active groups within TheCity, please save any files, contacts or key dates related to your ministry, prior to Monday, June 26. If you require assistance, please contact Laura Kearney, lkearney@olphchurch-il.org; or Melissa Conroy, mconroy@olphchurch-il.org.

Early Deadline: for the July 9 Bulletin

All submissions to the July 9 Bulletin must be received no later than 12 Noon, Tuesday, June 27. Please email content to mconroy@olphchurch-il.org.

Building Peaceful Bridges

Wilmette Public Library · Tuesday June 20 · 7pm

Join us for an evening discussion with Ahlam Mahmood, and a few of her new friends as she tells her story of creating a new home in a foreign land.

Ahlam fled her home in Iraq after being kidnapped for running a humanitarian center. She fled to Syria where she continued her dangerous work with humanitarian groups and journalists. When Syrian authorities became suspicious of her activities, they put her in jail. Journalist Deborah Campbell tracked her down and became instrumental in her being released from jail, leaving Syria and relocating to Chicago.

Ahlam’s story continues as she and her family start their new life in Chicago. They confront fears and myths as they courageously step into a whole new world.

• How did she and her children manage to connect with a new homeland?
• What kind of help did she need and from whom?
• How does she keep up her spirits and contribute to the wellbeing of others?

Meet Lori Lucchetti who was inspired to gather a small group of women together over lunches with Ahlam and her friends in her home in Glenview. This “Building Peaceful Bridges” group promotes the mission of inspiring positive actions and peaceful resolutions in today’s world beginning with ones’ local community.

Read Ahlam’s compelling story, A Disappearance in Damascus, published by Knopf, Canada (Amazon.ca) and forthcoming by Picador, U.S. on Sept. 5, 2017.

Care for Creation Listening Sessions

“This is a watershed moment for the church, for humanity and for the planet which Pope Francis calls our common home. It's time for the church to be bold — to speak about major issues — and to achieve a new level of relevance in people’s lives.” - Cardinal Blase Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago

As people of faith, we have a moral responsibility to be good stewards of God's creation. Pope Francis urges us to have "a new dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. We need a conversation which includes everyone, since the environmental challenge we are undergoing, and its human roots, concern and affect us all.” Join us as we reflect on our Catholic faith, and how it calls on us to be in right relationship with God, with one another, and with the earth, our common home.

Please RSVP for the June 24 listening session at Notre Dame de Chicago; 9am to 12 pm. RSVP online at https://goo.gl/64JDA3 or call 312-534-5393.
