HE CAME TO TESTIFY TO THE LIGHT

Jn 1:6

seek, share, rejoice - pastor's letter...

Fr. Jerry Boland, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

"He came to testify to the light".

If you are looking for an Advent Field trip, I highly recommend a visit to the Art Institute of Chicago's exhibition (here until Dec. 31), "Among Friends and Rivals: Caravaggio in Rome." The painter, Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio, was the sensation of the Roman art scene in the late 1500's. He had the remarkable ability to combine a realistic scene with a dramatic use of light. Many of his paintings were religious in nature. A whole school of students and established painters emulated his manner of painting, some of the most famous of his time; El Greco, Guido Reni, Bernini to mention a few. They became known as The Caravaggisti.

He became known as the great illuminator as his ability to shed "light" on subjects in darkness communicated a meaning on a whole different level.

The contrast between light and darkness is a major theme of Advent. We hear today that John the Baptist understood his mission was to testify to the light, the light of Jesus Christ.

Caravaggio's life was a metaphor for this challenge, to find and testify to the light. He struggled with much darkness in his personal life. He was constantly getting in trouble, unable to conquer the darkness and demons in his own life. This brilliant and influential painter in the end died way to young.

Like John the Baptist, we are called to testify to the light. Advent leads us from darkness to the light only Jesus can offer. These Advent days can call all of us to be bearers of the light as Christmas approaches.

Everyone of us has to contend to some degree with the forces of darkness. Sin ultimately is about the darkness and hopelessness of greed, resentment selfishness, envy or despair.

Isaiah has sent us to proclaim glad tidings to the poor! The message of this Third Sunday of Advent is filled with words of hope, reassurance and joy. We are reminded by Paul that we must, "Rejoice always".

This weekend is called Gaudete Sunday, the Sunday to rejoice as we are now have past the midpoint of Advent. As we approach the Winter Solstice and eventually Christmas, we begin ever so slowly to see the daylight expand.

May these Advent days be filled with light, hope and joy. Despite Caravaggio's personal struggles his paintings

Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio Martha and Mary Magdalene

"Caravaggio introduced dramatic effects of light and shadow in his paintings and often used ordinary-looking people to illustrate religious stories.

"In the sixteenth century a new emphasis was placed on Mary Magdalene's role as a converted sinner. Caravaggio depicts Mary's sister Martha, dressed modestly, reproaching her sister for her wayward conduct and enumerating on her fingers the miracles of Christ. This exact moment of the conversion was obviously a tremendous challenge for the painter because the change is spiritual rather than physical. Caravaggio's solution was to manipulate the light that illuminates the Magdalene, giving her an unearthly glow. The mirror, a traditional image of vanity, now reflects the light of divine revelation."

have been a source of hope and illumination for centuries. May we benefit from those testifying to the light all around us.

I see this testimony all around me and it comes from you! Thank you for your faithful support in so many ways of the mission of our faith community, I continue to get blown away by your generosity to those in need here and far beyond our boundaries. Your Advent testimony to the power of Christ's light is gracious and consoling. During these busy days, please take time for yourself.

One of the challenges of the calendar this year was the fact we don't have a Fourth Week. Despite that there is still time! We can "prepare the way, make straight the paths" that will lead us to Christmas.

Please check the Bulletin and websites for our calendar of services. We have such beautiful liturgies planned. I can't wait to see all of us proclaiming once again, Jesus is born!

Please remember in your prayers, Russel Stern's mother Shirlee Stern, who passed away recently. May her memory be a blessing.

"Within our Darkness, Shines His Everlasting Light."

Optimist Club of Glenview Award - Religious Service Kate Ludden

"Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God. Do all that you do with love." This familiar bit of wisdom comes to us from St. Therese of Lisieux. St. Therese modeled for us her "Little Way", living her life by doing "little" things for everyone she encountered and always from a place of love.

For all who know Kate Ludden, it is no surprise that she chose St. Therese of Lisieux to be her saint at Confirmation. Kate lives her life by these words, and by following the "Little Way" of St. Therese. Kate's faith is central to her daily life, in all that she does. Kate does all things with humility and love. As her mom said, "she is never looking for 'credit', she just 'does.'"

Kate with her parents Dawn and David Ludden

In eighth grade, Kate made an independent decision to spend her next four years at Regina Dominican High School. While she played on the Panthers' volleyball, soccer and tennis teams, Kate's true passion has always been dance. Kate found a home in the Orchesis program at Regina. She enjoyed expression through dance and began choreographing during her sophomore year. As a senior she is an appointed co-captain of the Orchesis program.

Kate has been a member of the Leadership Institute at Regina since her freshman year. The Leadership Institute provides young women with multiple opportunities for leadership development. At the Leadership Institute's Project Innovation Fair in March 2023, Kate and her team were awarded the Overall Winning App. Kate is also a Regina Dominican Leadership Scholar.

As a member of the Three Pillars Institute, a philanthropic service organization, Kate has participated in opportunities in each of the "three pillars" of fund raising, charitable giving, and service projects. Kate initiated and created a student book drive and book recycling program in which Regina students recycle books they have used, to each other.

At Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Kate has been a parish "helper" since she was a little girl. She is a trained lector at OLPH, and a trained Eucharistic Minister at OLPH and Regina. Kate has been an important influence in the rebuilding of the OLPH Youth Ministry program. Kate is a tremendous support to the Youth Ministry Coordinator. Most recently, Kate has been asked to sit on the panel at the annual OLPH Parish Summit.

Kate humbly loves her family, her OLPH family, her Regina family and the many people she encounters each day. With her daily following of St. Therese's "Little Way," she touches many in a "big way." "Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice, here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word; always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love."

Thank you, St. Therese. Thank you, Kate.

Religious Education

The Religious Education Program needs a First Grade Catechist and Kindergarten Aide at 4:30pm. Everything for class is provided for you.

These are wonderful classes which are sure to bring joy to your day. There are only 14 sessions left for the 23-24 school year.

Feast of the Holy Innocents / Hope and Healing Mass

Please join us on December 28 at 8:30 am for a Mass of Hope and Healing for all who mourn the loss of a child either before or after birth for any reason at any age. In the silence of our hearts, we will entrust the souls of our dear departed children to the Christ Child. Mass will also be livestreamed and archived on the parish website. A liturgy aid will be available on the parish website as well.

A PRAYER TO THE HOLY INNOCENTS

Holy Innocents, you died before you were old enough to know what life means, pray for all children who die young that God may gather them into His loving arms.

Holy Innocents, you were killed because one man was filled with hatred, pray for those who hate, that God may touch their hearts and fill them with love.

Holy Innocents, you experienced a violent death, pray for all who are affected by violence that they may find peace and love.

Holy Innocents, your parents grieved for you with deep and lasting sorrow, pray for all parents who have lost young children that God may wrap a warm blanket of comfort around them.

Holy Innocents, those around you certainly felt helpless to prevent your deaths, pray for all who feel helpless in their circumstances that they may cling to God for courage and hope.

Holy Innocents, you who are now in Heaven, pray for all of us that one day we may join you there to bask in God's love forever. Amen

PARENT EFFECTIVENESS TRAINING

PARENT EFFECTIVENESS TRAINING

FEWER POWER-STRUGGLES, LESS TENSIONS, LESS RESENTMENT AND MORE PEACEFUL FAMILIES

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

The four basic skills every parent needs are:

1. How to talk to your children so that they will listen to you.
2. How to listen to your children so they feel genuinely understood.
3. How to resolve conflicts and problems in your family so that no one loses and problems stay solved.
4. A method for troubleshooting family problems and knowing which skills to use to solve them.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

P.E.T. is for parents of children of all ages. Naturally, special considerations have to be made for pre-verbal children, which is covered in the workshop.

For questions or more information, please email us at: pet.olphglenview@gmail.com

WHAT IS PARENT EFFECTIVENESS TRAINING (P.E.T.)?

Whether you're the parent of a toddler or a teenager, you know that parenting can be challenging—even overwhelming at times. Unfortunately, children don't come with an instruction manual. And, being a parent doesn't always mean that you automatically or instinctively know what to do. Parent Effectiveness Training (P.E.T.) offers proven communication skills that really work. When they use these skills, parents are amazed with the dramatic improvement both in their families and in all their relationships.

HOW YOU AND YOUR FAMILY WILL BENEFIT

Your children will feel free to discuss their problems and concerns with you instead of withdrawing.

They will learn self-discipline, self-control and an inner sense of personal responsibility.

You will learn how to work with each other instead of against each other.

You'll experience fewer angry outbursts and more problem-solving.

Everyone can participate in rule-setting so all will feel motivated to comply with the rules.

Fewer power struggles—less tension, less resentment, more fun, more peace, more love.
