

The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds;

it does not rest till it reaches its goal,
nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and
affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

Thoughts on the SUNDAY SCRIPTURES

There is an interesting twist we find in today's gospel when we hear Jesus' parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector praying in the temple. The Pharisee is "praying to himself."

It doesn't mean he was praying silently. It seems to mean something a lot more troubling, that he is praying to himself; that God is not his prayer's intended audience.

The words of the Pharisee are very much centered on himself: he makes claims about his character. He highlights his own admirable activities.

Good stewards of their prayer lives know that a prayer of praise and thanksgiving should focus on the goodness of God.

Do your prayers of thanksgiving always stay focused on God's unfathomable, immeasurable goodness and generosity?

©ICSC 2019

Dear Parishioners,

"O God, be merciful to me a sinner."

The lament of the tax collector in this weekend's Gospel is one we might all ponder. Awareness of our need for mercy and forgiveness is crucial in any relationship, especially with the Lord.

We all have the challenge of seeking a deeper insight into the parts of our lives in which sin and resentment broods. The only way we can move to a better place is to name it and take the actions that can bring us to a better place. Fidelity to Christ implies personal integrity and dedication to living gospel values.

Being held accountable is a challenge for a family and a faith community. There are certain people in our lives who bring out the best in us. There are some voices in our lives that can compel us to change or to be an agent of mercy.

Last weekend was the women's Christ Renews His Parish retreat at the Bellarmine Retreat House. These weekends always open up the power of mercy as people reflect on their lives and open their hearts to the power of renewal. I really encourage you to consider attending one in the future. The men's weekend is scheduled for November 16-17 and there are still openings.

We had another special moment in our centennial year as we marked the official founding of the parish last Friday, October 18, at the 8:30 morning mass. It is a blessing that our founding was established on the Feast of St. Luke the Evangelist.

This past Wednesday I had the privilege of presiding at Mass for the Veritus Society of Regina Dominican High School. Our parishioner, Maura Chamberlin is the Assistant Director of Advancement. We have many alumna from there as well as students attending. The school creates an environment where leadership and service are fostered through the context of Dominican values of hard work, prayer and justice. It was wonderful to share the evening with many committed to its mission.

This Saturday, 10/26, at the 5:00 p.m. mass, we gather with the OLPH school endowment board to present Dr. Amy Mills with this year's proceeds of the endowment. Thank you to everyone who supports the endowment. The resources are critical to providing an outstanding education and to keep down tuition costs.

Loyola Academy's President's dinner in which Sr. Paulanne will be honored is sold out! What an amazing tribute! We hope to see you there at this wonderful event. The dinner is next Friday, 11/01, and begins with Mass at Old St. Patrick's Church at 5:30 p.m.

Next weekend I will be speaking at all the masses for our annual reflection on stewardship. I am always inspired by your generous sacrifices to sustain the mission of our parish. Our recent catch up Sunday appeal was a terrific success and closed the gap in our Sunday collections. This week, you will be receiving a copy of our Annual Report in the mail. This is a powerful case statement of all that is supported through your sacrifices and stewardship of OLPH. In early November, you will be receiving an annual Planned Offertory program brochure in the mail, which invites you to reflect on the financial support you can give to OLPH in the coming new year. Thank you for your discernment!

Next Saturday, 11/02, following the 8:30 a.m. Mass, is our annual Summit, which gathers the ministerial leadership of the parish. We will be reflecting in this centennial year on the blessings of the past and the challenges of the future.

Also next Saturday, 11/02, at 7:00 p.m., is our annual Bereavement Liturgy. We gather with all who have experienced the death of a loved one in the past year. Saturday is also the Feast of All Souls when we begin a special month of remembrance for our beloved dead. Please pray for all those who are mourning. The loving support of family and friends is crucial to coping with the pain.

We have an author in the parish! Peter Nolan, long time commentator for Channel 5(NBC) has written a book, "News Stories, a memoir". Peter has a fascinating take on many of the events and personalities from his career that stretched from the early 60's to the late 80's. He will present a conversation on his book, on Saturday, 11/09 at 9:00 a.m. in the rectory. Come by for a cup of coffee and hear from someone who was in the trenches as a reporter.

May your week be blessed!

Would you like to get Spiritually Fit?

Relationships define us

Your relationships with family, friends, co-workers...and self...defines you

Your relationship with God affects all other relationships

Does this describe you?

- "I rarely pray; I don't have the time"
- "Prayer confuses me sometimes; I could use some help"
- "My prayer life is stale and boring; I get very little out of it"
- "My prayer life is inconsistent; I'd like to improve"

An Important Key to Spiritual Fitness is Prayer

OLPH Spiritual Fitness Ministry (SFM) is offering a 90-day spiritual fitness program...without crunches, weights or long runs.

Working one-on-one with a prayer partner who understands the challenges to improving one's spirituality, you will discover how to make meaningful prayer part of your daily routine. Your spiritual fitness routine will be customized for you.

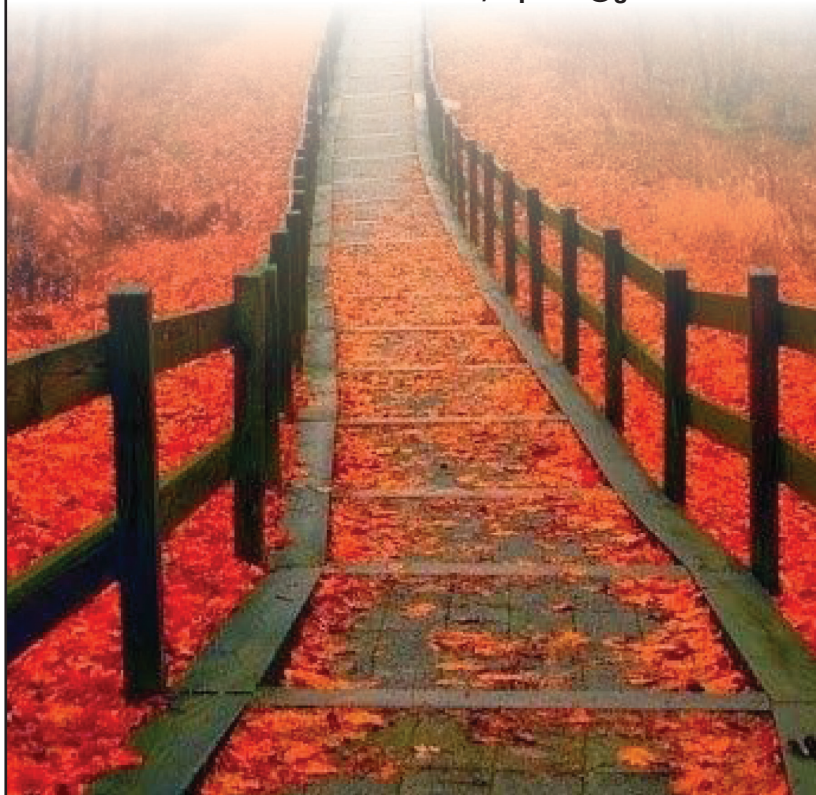

- Private and confidential
- No cost

The Goal is to build a simple and sustainable prayer habit that leads to:

- Greater awareness of God in your life – "moments of grace"
- Improves relationships with family, friends...everyone...including you

This is a brand new program that is building quickly from a grassroots level. It is specifically for young men and women, from high school ages on up to adults in their twenties.

If you want to bring more meaning into your life through prayer, BE THERE. Sunday night. You will not be disappointed.

OLPH Parish Summit 2019

Saturday, November 2

You are invited!

On Sat., Nov. 2, following 8:30 am Mass, we will have our Parish Summit in McDonnell Hall.

All parishioners are encouraged to attend.

The first half of the summit will be a presentation by Lowell Wallace. Lowell authored the excellent history of our parish that appeared in our OLPH Centennial Commemorative booklet.

The second half of the summit will feature a talk by Fr. John Kartje. The theme of Fr. Kartje's presentation will be: Preparing for the Church of the Future.

A light continental breakfast will be served as we celebrate our history and plan for our future.

This is an event you won't want to miss.

We remember those in our parish who we have lost during the last year.

Sharing Ministry

Support the Fall Food Drive, Sponsored by Guild 30

Guild 30 is once again sponsoring a food drive, beginning October 26 and running through November 24. Each week's collections will be delivered to one of our Sharing parishes.

Next weekend's donations will be delivered to St. Sabina's Food Pantry, which serves an average of 570 families per month.

They are most grateful for this food drive and indicate they have special need for:

- Canned Meats and Fish
- Canned Soups
- Canned Stews and Pastas
- Canned Vegetables, especially beans
- Canned Fruits
- Cold and Hot Cereal
- PB and J

Please plan to participate in this important month-long drive. Last year's event brought in over 40,000 cans of food, which represented over 40% of all food items donated to Sharing in 2018. Let's work to match this number and make Thanksgiving a time of abundance at the pantries we serve.

Save Those Boxes for the Fall Food Drive

Guild 30 will once again be sponsoring the Fall Food Drive, running from October 26 through November 24. They anticipate needing medium size boxes (think copy paper size) for packaging and transporting the donations. Boxes need lids or flaps. Drop your box donations at the Sharing Room, assembled or unassembled, anytime between now and the end of the drive.

Local Homeless Family Needs Furnishings

Sr. Paulanne is working to place a homeless family of three, mom and two sons, in an apartment.

We are looking for:

Full or queen bed
2 twin beds
1 chest dresser
Kitchen table and chairs
End tables

Contact Betty Collins, collinsjustbetty@gmail.com to donate.

We are in need of a double stroller for a needy mom. Contact Betty Collins, collinsjustbetty@gmail.com.

Englewood Families

We are looking for two sets of washers and gas dryers, two twin beds and a queen bed.

Contact Regina Banks, reginaabanks@gmail.com to donate.

Volunteer Opportunities

Sharing Delivery Drivers Needed

We are looking for a few drivers to join our team of drivers which delivers food donations to our Sharing parishes. This group self-schedules, with most volunteers making only one run a month. SUV or van needed. Contact Lee Vandervest, lvandervest@aol.com for more information.

Befriend a Family Needs You

The Befriend a Family program gave support to over 200 families last Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter with sponsors providing gift cards for groceries and Christmas gifts or shopping for these items. Donors remain anonymous and the Sharing Ministry manages delivery of donations. The program supports families at our four sharing parishes, local families and a few refugee families, with donors deciding where they want to support.

We are in need of additional donors for the upcoming holidays. Contact Stacy Dolan, stacydolan5@aol.com, for information.

Connections For the Homeless - Thanksgiving celebration

On November 9, Connections For the Homeless will host a Thanksgiving celebration for the community. It will be in Lake Street Church at 607 Lake St, Evanston, IL, 60201. The expected attendance will be around 300 individuals. Connections with the help of several community members will provide Turkeys and other Thanksgiving food. Takeaway food, coats, and clothes will also be provided among other things. Connections is looking for volunteers that day. Opportunities to volunteer starts at 10:00 a.m. and ends at 9:00 p.m. Connections is seeking help to set up the dining room, manage the clothing room, general support and evening clean up. If you are interested please email Hail Khalaf at hkhalf@connect2home.org

Upcoming Event

Our Lady of Tepeyac Grade School will hold its annual benefit on Friday, November 8 at the school. Tickets are $75, raffle tickets are $10 each or 6 for $50. Auction items also welcome. Contact Mary Anne Nash Sebbby, nashsebbby@msn.com, for tickets, to donate or for further information.

Giving Voice To the Spirit Through Poetry

by Jerrol Leitner

Sat., Nov. 16, 9:30-11:15 a.m. in McDonnell Hall

As Catholic Christians, we view the world as sacramental. All creation has the potential to reveal the Divine. For those poets who were raised in a different tradition, Protestant or non-Christian they might not use the word sacramental and yet they respond to this transcendent, mystical quality. Their sensitivity to these qualities helps us to awaken to the interdependent and interconnected reality of the world. They help give voice to the Spirit in order to raise our consciousness above mundane concerns and acknowledge who we are and to what purpose we should direct the energies of our lives. Poets may not see themselves in this way but they can be instruments of the Spirit tapping into the creative energy that flows from the original source of all Creativity and all Creation.

Poetry uses the language of symbol and metaphor and thus begins where ordinary words fail. For example, when Jesus says, "I am the light of the world" he obviously doesn't mean he is a large candle. Instead, he is speaking poetically, deeply and spiritually-and the image of light intrigues and instructs.

This presentation explores two poets separated by eight centuries. Jalal al-din Rumi was a 13th century Sufi poet. The American Mary Oliver died in January of 2019. They have long been the two most popular poets in America, and through their lives and their writings they offer deeply spiritual lessons into the human condition and the divine that undergirds it.

Jerrol Leitner holds an M.A. in Theology and an M.A. in English. He is retired from 40 years of high school teaching, many of those years at St. Viator's in Arlington Heights. He has been on the faculty of Common Ground and is a frequent speaker on spirituality, world religions and literary topics at churches, senior centers and libraries.

Centennial Goal for the School Endowment Board

Sustain a Legacy

The Endowment Fund was established in 1992 by Pastor John Flavin, Sr. Carole Cierniak and a group of forward thinking parishioners who were committed to providing a Catholic education for all parish children. Through Planned Giving, the fund raises and invests money for the long-term vitality of OLPH School.

The school's largest endowment gift to date was 1.7M in 2014. We have recognized this significant gift on our campus with a statue of theologian St. Thomas Aquinas, patron saint of schools, and a plaque to honor our generous donor. We are so very grateful.

As part of our parish Centennial Celebration the Endowment Board members have pledged to each say the prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas 100 times, over the coming year – 1700 prayers!

*Grant me, O Lord my God,
a mind to know you,
a heart to seek you,
wisdom to find you,
conduct pleasing to you,
faithful perseverance in waiting for you,
and a hope of finally embracing you.
Amen*

Football

The 8th Grade Varsity team defeated St. Mary Lake Forest 12-6.

Both 7th & 8th grade teams advance to the playoffs this Saturday at Notre Dame. 7th grade plays Wilmette Catholic at 2:30 pm and 8th plays Queen of All Saints at 1:00 pm.

Cross Country

Congratulations on a great season! Both the JV Girls & Boys teams placed 3rd at the CYO Meet. Our Varsity team competed at the IESA State Finals against the best runners in Illinois. 8th grader, Emma Burke became the first female athlete in OLPH history to earn All-State honors with a 10th place finish in the girls race!

Girls Volleyball

Both 8th grade girls teams will compete in the OLPH Volleyball Invite happening Saturday, October 26 in the Playdium.

Endowment Fund

Leave A Legacy

The Endowment Fund was established in 1992 by forward thinking parishioners who were committed to providing a Catholic education for all parish children. Through Planned Giving, the fund raises and invests money for the long-term vitality of OLPH School.

Each year the Fund gives 5% of its principal value to the school. At the Endowment Mass this weekend, the school received a check for $275,500 ... we are so grateful! Given the current financial landscape of Catholic education, this fund is a vital resource to us.

You Can Impact the Future!

By making a gift through your current will or trust, you can support the Endowment Fund in the future without using any of your assets today. Additionally, your estate will benefit from a tax deduction for making a charitable contribution.

Do YOU Want To Leave a Legacy?

The Endowment Board works with individuals, their attorneys, and tax advisors to help plan these gifts. Contact John Kurkowski at john.kurkowski@comcast.net or Kathy Romano at kromano@olph-il.org for more information about estate planning.
