OF ADVENT

OLPH

NOVEMBER 27, 2016

Seek, Share, Rejoice!

They shall beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks;
one nation shall not raise the sword against another.

~ Isaiah 2:4

Father Jerry Boland

"We are personally invited to enter into a period of spiritual preparation."

Dear Parishioners,

The Advent Season is beautiful! From the majestic passages of the book of the prophet Isaiah to the growing anticipation of the birth of Jesus Christ recorded in the Gospels, we can't help but be moved by the Word of God made flesh.

Advent might be summarized in the word "preparation." We recall the events that called the Jewish people to prepare for the coming of the Messiah. We are personally invited to enter into a period of spiritual preparation. The upcoming celebration of Christmas is a time requiring many different types of preparation.

Please take advantage of many activities that the parish will be offering to enhance your Advent journey.

As part of your Advent prayer I highly recommend Bishop Barron's daily meditation on the gospel of the day. Go to adventreflections.com to sign up for a free daily email reflection in English or Spanish. Bishop Barron has a gift for making the gospels come alive and offers practical suggestions for living your faith.

Cardinal Cupich has invited us into a time of profound preparation for the future of the Church here in the Archdiocese. His initiative, "Renew My Church," is a multiyear process to revitalize our Church. We must together explore new ways to inspire discipleship and revitalize our sense of mission. The spirit of this initiative is taken from the words the Lord uttered to St. Francis of Assisi, "Go rebuild my Church". You can visit www.archchicago.org/renew to read more about this process.

Special thanks to Dave and Lisa Zimmer and their committee that organized the Phun Run. The event raised almost $33,000 for Sr. Paulanne's Needy Family Fund! Next year I am running!

The Men's Club will be presenting a great event, "Waiter for a Day" at Middy Mags Pizzeria, 1127 Depot Street, on Sunday, December 4 from 5:00 to 8:00 pm. All tips will go to the Needy Family Fund. Sr. Paulanne and I will be just two of many famous waiters that will be serving you. The service may be lousy, but if you have been to Middy Mags, you know that the pizza can't be beat!

Your continued support of the capital campaign, "To Teach Who Christ Is" has been amazing and humbling to me. We have surpassed our standard goal and are well on our way towards our enhanced goal of $5.5 million. On behalf of the committee, I want to thank all those who have been able to support the campaign.

We keep hoping to expand the number of parishioners who participate. Every gift is a blessing and helps us draw close to funding all of our projects. I know there are many demands that come your way, especially this time of the year. As you have read, our projects will touch almost every aspect of parish life.

May your Advent be blessed!

Fr. Jerry Boland

STEWARDSHIP SAINT for November

Saint Catherine of Alexandria

For six centuries, Saint Catherine was one of the most venerated of women saints in Christendom alongside saints Agnes, Barbara and Lucy. Saint Catherine's was one of the voices Saint Joan of Arc said she heard. She is famous for her extraordinary gifts to evangelize and exercise stewardship of her faith.

Born in the late 3rd century C.E., Catherine was the daughter of a wealthy governor of Alexandria, Egypt, the renowned Christian center of scholarship, and at the time, second only to Rome in size and wealth. She possessed a great love for learning and became exceptionally well educated in philosophy and science. She also showed a keen interest in religion and while still a teenager became a Christian.

In early 4th century Rome, Christianity was growing but continued to endure persecution. Eager to share the faith she had embraced and lobby for religious freedom, Catherine was granted an audience with the Roman Emperor Maxentius who was not much older than the young scholar.

Saint Catherine's was one of the voices Saint Joan of Arc said she heard. She is famous for her extraordinary gifts to evangelize and exercise stewardship of her faith.

Impressed by her boldness and taken by her beauty, the emperor arranged a debate between Catherine and some fifty of Rome's philosophers and orators who promoted the official state religion. Reportedly, Catherine prevailed and succeeded in converting them all to Christianity. Maxentius ordered his pagan advocates executed, and then tried to make Catherine his mistress. When she rebuffed him, he had her imprisoned.

The emperor's wife, however, was fascinated by Catherine; and while her husband was away on military matters, she went to visit this extraordinary young apostle in her prison cell. The result was that Catherine converted the empress and eventually two hundred of the palace soldiers. News of these recently baptized Christians infuriated the emperor, and he had his wife and soldiers executed as well.

Maxentius tried yet again to win Catherine over by proposing marriage to make her his new queen. When she again refused him, the emperor had her tortured and beheaded. Not long after, he himself would die in an historic battle against Constantine in October 312. It is Constantine, who, upon becoming the new Roman emperor, made Christianity the dominant religion of the Roman Empire.

Saint Catherine is the patroness of Christian philosophers and her Feast day is November 25.

OLPH Meal Ministry Welcomes More Cooks

The OLPH Meal Ministry cooks and delivers warm meals to people within our parish community in times of crisis (bereavement, illness, financial challenges). Meals are provided on Tuesdays and Thursdays. We additionally prepare frozen casseroles to the Sharing Room for Sr. Paulanne to distribute to families who come to the convent door in need of help.

Want to cook for folks who will truly appreciate your efforts? Contact Nancy O'Brien, nobrien@sbcglobal.net, or Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net, for more information.

Serve at Catholic Charities/Des Plaines

We will be feeding the homeless who visit the Catholic Charities soup kitchen in Des Plaines on Thursday, December 8.

Contact Kathy Quinn, khquinn1944@comcast.net, to participate or to make a donation to offset the $400 cost for this meal. It takes both donors and volunteers to make these visits happen.

Too busy to shop for the food drive?

We'll do the shopping for you! Mail a donation made out to the OLPH Needy Family Fund to Lou Marohn, 2132 Fir Street, Glenview, IL 60025. Food will be purchased in case lots to stretch and maximize your donation.

OLPH Be-Friend A Family Has Families in Need of Holiday Support

Be-Friend a Family needs you to be a part of our holiday outreach to needy families. We have about 200 needy families, some enrolled and others waiting in the wings. Each family is paired with an OLPH individual, family, guild, scout troop or randomly matched team. Food gift cards are the preferred form of support, but we also invite those who would rather shop for food and gift donation to do so. Your Be-Friend a Family relationship remains on-going until the needy family gets back on their feet or until you choose to opt out of the program. You drop off your donations locally and the Sharing Ministry will handle delivery of goods to the needy family.

Join the effort! Take on a family on your own, with your group, or donate a food gift card in any denomination, which we will combine with others to provide support for a needy family. Contact Stacy Dolan at StacyDolan5@aol.com or 847-840-9394.

EVOLVE Adult Education
Presents

Melchior and the Fourth Wiseman

Saturday, December 10
9:30 am McDonnell Hall

R.J. Lindsey will offer an Advent/Christmas program that brings to life the Fourth Wiseman, Artaban, who attempted to join the search for the newborn king. Artaban represents us today who are called to the Corporal Works of Mercy.

R.J. Lindsey has for thirty-five years been a researcher, writer and actor. He portrays a variety of historical figures.

It's about sharing life, together.

It is my favorite prayer service we do as a program all year long. Last week the Religious Education Community came together to pray the rosary for the hungry. As a part of this prayer service, children are encouraged to bring in non-perishable food items for our Sharing Parishes. The altar steps were overflowing with food. The generosity of the families continues to amaze me year after year.

I encouraged the children to bring in something that they like to eat to share with another child a bit less fortunate so that child could enjoy the same meal as well. There were quite a few boxes of the popular blue macaroni and cheese scattered throughout the mountain of cans and pasta boxes. As the older grades gathered up the food to bring over to the Sharing Room, someone grabbed a Costco pack of the cheesy noodle goodness and commented, "I'm starving! I wonder what's for dinner tonight!"

No matter how old your children are the "What's for dinner?" question often echoes through the house, sometimes unanswered. I joke with my girls sometimes, "Didn't I feed you yesterday? Why do you have to eat again today?" Of course food is meant to satisfy the hunger, but mealtime also holds that power for us to connect – as a family. It's a different kind of hunger that needs to be fed just as well.

Stories are woven throughout scripture that center around the breaking of bread. It's the sharing of a meal in a meaningful and yet unintentional way, that encourages us to engage more fully with each other and allows conversation and relationships to occur. Jesus knew this to be true. He modeled it. He taught it. Meals were a central part of His ministry. When we think past the real importance of a meal, we realize it's not about an intricate recipe created looking worthy enough to share on social media. It's more about about the gathering that will change the way we think about food.

Part of how we love each other in a family is by gathering around the table and storytelling through our shared laughter and tears, disasters and victories. It's more than making meals. It's gathering for meals that satisfies our hunger.

Parent Effectiveness Training

New Course Begins January, 2017

Ever wish children came with an instruction manual? They do! Parent Effectiveness Training (P.E.T.) offers proven communication skills that work. When parents use these skills, they are amazed at the improvements in their families. P.E.T. was created by Dr. Thomas Gordon (three-time Nobel Peace Prize nominee) in 1962. Over the nearly 50 years P.E.T. has been around, it's been revised and updated with new content and examples that address the problems, issues and concerns of today's parents. You, too, can learn these powerful, time-tested, proven skills!

Class meets every Wednesday evening from 6:30-9:00 pm, starting January 25 and ending March 15. Make up class in case of weather will be March 22.

Cost of tuition includes materials, and the rest of the proceeds go entirely to the OLPH Youth Group.

Tuition for one person from each family is $170; each additional person from the same family is only $85! If you have attended class before, you may attend the class for free. Sign up at:

olphglenview.org/events/parent-effectiveness-training

Nearly $4M raised to date!

As of this printing, we have received nearly $4M in pledges to the To Teach Who Christ is capital campaign.

We are on our way toward our goal of $5.5M. Thank you to everyone who has responded. We need to hear from more people!

As Father Boland noted recently:

Every gift is a blessing and helps us draw close to funding all of our projects. I know there are many demands that come your way, especially this time of the year. Our projects will touch almost every aspect of parish life. Please prayerfully consider.

How the Campaign Funds Will Be Used

OLPH Parish Goal: $5.5 M

$1.4 M (26%) to the Archdiocese for Catholic Education

$4.1 M (74%) stays at OLPH for our Capital Projects

Project priorities include:

REPURPOSING THE FORMER CONVENT into a PARISH CENTER including new space for meetings and a youth ministry center.

SCHOOL UPGRADES and INVESTMENTS including STEM labs

Campus SAFETY NEEDS and UPGRADES including replacement of the crumbling steps and plaza in front of our church.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS
including a complete renovation of McDonnell Hall

We must meet our goal in order to accomplish all these projects. Participation is key! Our goal is to have 1,000 households participating with a pledge. We are getting there, but we need to hear from hundreds more of our faithful donors. Full participation is the only way to realize our dreams for improvements in all areas of parish life.

Haven't Pledged Yet?

Contact us today. Also, in the coming days an online link will allow you to make your pledge electronically.

Pastoral Care of the Sick at OLPH

Every member of our parish is important to the pastoral staff at Our Lady of Perpetual Help. To assist us in providing quality care to those in need, the patient or family must take the initiative to have spiritual needs met. Please contact the parish office by calling 847-729-1525.

If you would like to be Anointed by a priest prior to a planned hospitalization, please call the parish office in advance. Anointing may also be requested in the hospital thru the Chaplain.

When you are being admitted to the hospital or a nursing/rehabilitation center, it is important for you or a family member to tell the facility that you are Catholic and would like to be visited by a Minister of Care with Holy Communion. Ministers of Care are visiting area hospitals every day with Holy Communion, as well as nursing homes and rehab centers several times each week. However, unless you tell the facility that you are Catholic, you will not be included on the list which is given to the Minister of Care.

You or a member of your family may also contact the Hospital Chaplain for spiritual support during your hospital stay, or you may call the parish office to request a priest to visit.

Upon your return home, if you will be homebound for any length of time, you should call the parish office at 847-729-1525 to request a Minister of Care to bring you Holy Communion, or you may contact Rick Nash - Coordinator of the Ministry of Care - at 847-651-8718. Ministers of Care are most willing to visit members of the parish who for medical/physical reasons are not able to attend Sunday Mass.

Thoughts on Today's Gospel

On this first Sunday of Advent Jesus urges his disciples to stay awake and prepare themselves for the Lord's coming.

Good stewards prepare themselves and await Christ's judgment in joyous expectation. This kind of attitude requires genuine spiritual maturity, the kind that is cultivated by prayer, participation in the sacraments, loving attention to family and one's communion of faith, and love for one's neighbor.

Are we prepared for the Lord's second coming? Are we ready to receive Christ? Are we ready to look joyously for Christ's judgment?
